

Point of View & Perspective

Investigative Learning

What do you know about

Point of View & Perspective

What did you see?

Write a personal witness statement
for what just happened.

Power write without stopping for 2
minutes!

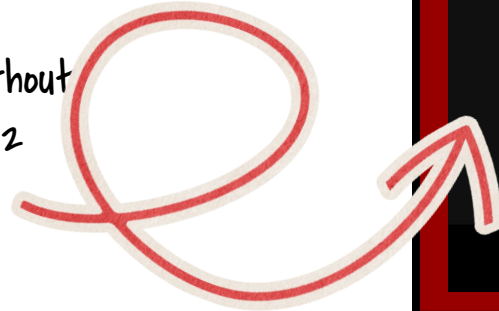

2:00

From Red's perspective, how would you describe what happened?

Put yourself in her shoes and write a Witness Statement from Red's Point of view.

Power write without
stopping for 2
minutes!

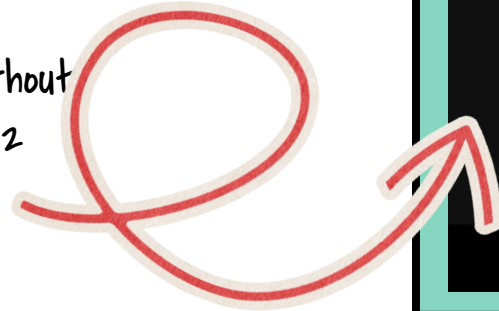

2:00

From Wolf's perspective, how would you describe what happened?

Put yourself in his paws and write a Witness Statement from Wolf's point of view.

Power write without
stopping for 2
minutes!

2:00

Compare and Contrast

The Witness Statements

Based on the witness statements and the venn diagram, come up with a definition for

Perspective & Point of View

Perspective:

Point of View:

Investigative Learning Cross Examination Round

1. Why is point of view important?

2. What would be different if the story was told from just one character's

Perspective?

3. Did the

Point of View & Perspective?

Change your opinion about what happened? Why?

4. Why would an author choose to tell a story from one Point of View?

5. What happened to the protagonist and antagonist when the Point of View

changed?

6. Should authors tell the

Point of View &

Perspective

of each character when they write a story? Why?

7. What type of

Point of View

Is this movie told in? Defend your answer.

8. What is an example of something you have seen or read that has multiple perspectives?
What about something that has a single point of view?